Fall 2011 Headcount Enrollment Overview
December 22, 2011

The first three tables provide information on student headcount for Fall 2011 compared to Fall 2010. Please note: (1) the enrollment funding formula is driven by "student credit hours," and (2) analysis will be available in Spring 2012. The three additional tables (Attachments 1, 2, and 3) provide information on enrollment by race, UNC college-going rates, and SAT scores.

The following summary provides key comparisons between Fall 2011 and Fall 2010 with additional clarifying information.

- Overall enrollment decreased by -1,422 = -0.6%
  - 7 campuses increased, 9 campuses decreased
  - An increase occurred in Doctoral Research and Professional enrollment (+310)
  - Decreases occurred in Masters level enrollment (-1,256) and Undergraduate enrollment (-476)

- Undergraduate enrollment decreased by -476 = -0.3%
  - 7 campuses increased, 9 campuses decreased
  - New first-time undergraduates decreased by -122 = -0.4%
  - The average SAT for first-time freshmen increased from 1085 to 1093 overall; from 1082 to 1089 for in-state students; and, from 1114 to 1120 for out-of-state
  - New transfer undergraduates decreased by -333 = -2.4%
  - Continuing undergraduates increased by +913 = +0.8%.
  - Unclassified undergraduates decreased by -565 = -8.9%
  - Bachelor's degree programs with the largest increases were in health professions (+658), psychology (+433), and corrections & criminal justice (+286)
  - Bachelor's degree programs with the largest decreases were in undeclared (-805), education (-546), and communications & journalism (-244)

- Masters level enrollment decreased by -1,256 = -3.7%
  - 3 campuses increased, 13 campuses decreased
  - Master's degree programs with the largest increases were in engineering (+223), multidisciplinary studies (+119), and health professions (+75)
  - Master's degree programs with the largest decreases were in unclassified (-878), education (-536), and library science (-183)

- Doctoral Research enrollment increased by +208 = +2.3%
  - 9 campuses increased, 2 campuses decreased
  - Doctoral degree programs with the largest increases were in engineering (+58), biological sciences (+54), and physical sciences (+46)
  - Doctoral degree programs with the largest decreases were in education (-22), computer & information sciences (-12), and public administration & services (-6)

- Doctoral Professional enrollment increased by +102 = +2.7%
  - Health professions increased +161 and law & legal studies decreased -59

The following definitions apply to the table on "Undergraduate" enrollment:

- New First-Time Undergraduates = students enrolling as undergraduates for the first time since high school
- New UG Transfers = students who have earned college credit since high school and are transferring to a UNC campus
- Returning = students who are readmitted as undergraduates after an absence of one or more regular semesters
- Continuing = students who remain enrolled as undergraduates, i.e., no break in enrollment
- Unclassified = students who are enrolled in undergraduate courses but are not in a degree-seeking program
- Post-Baccalaureate certificate = students who have completed a baccalaureate degree and are pursuing a certificate

Note: Effective fall 2000, historical data (1986-1999) were revised to include "distance education only" enrollments not included in previous reports. These data are taken from historical Student Data Files, where the quality of "distance education only" data improves in more recent years.
Fall 2000 and forward data include "distance education only" directly from the Student Data File.
Fall 1972 "Other" is included in "White." Fall 1990 and later - "Other/Unknown" includes non-resident aliens, unreported race, and mixed race. Fall 2009 and forward - "Asian" includes Asian and Hawaiian/Pacific Islander. "Other/Unknown" includes non-resident aliens, unreported race, and two more races.

* Estimates of private N.C. high school graduates by race assume that 94% were white, 5% black, .6% Asian, and .4% Hispanic in each year. Estimates of total graduates in private school are derived by using 99% of 12th grade enrollment, which is obtained from the web site of NC Dept. of Administration, Div. of Non-Public Education.

 Total includes the number of students in the "Other/Unknown" category, which incuded non-resident aliens, unreported race, and mixed race prior to fall 2009. Fall 2009 and forward - "Asian" includes Asian and Hawaiian/Pacific Islander. "Other/Unknown" includes non-resident aliens, unreported race, and two more races.

UNC-GA ProgAssess/Admiss.AT001.U/12-9-11

* SAT averages are based only on freshmen with SAT scores. Number of students includes both those with and without SAT scores. About 6.5 percent of the total first-time freshmen in Fall 2011 did not have SAT scores.

 Excludes four-year diploma students at NCSA and Agricultural Institute students at NCSU.

 Does not include out-of-state first-time freshmen majoring in engineering.

^ 2006 is the first year for addition of the writing SAT score. About nine percent of the total first-time freshmen in Fall 2006 and six percent in Fall 2007 and Fall 2008 did not have writing SAT score. Near ten percent of the total first-time freshmen in Fall 2009, six percent in Fall 2010, and 6.8% in Fall 2011 did not have writing SAT score.

Note: Extension students are included in the table.
