Mr. Joseph P. Wilson
840 NE 69th Street
Boca Raton, FL 33847-2426

Dear Mr. Wilson:

I have previously communicated with you regarding the State Government Ethics Act's (Act's) requirement that certain public officials file Statements of Economic Interest ("SEI") no later than March 15, 2007.

On April 13, 2007, I sent you a notice of your failure to comply with the SEI filing requirement. In that notice, I advised you of the importance of the SEI process in ensuring that public officials serve the public's interests. I also stated that a public official who did not file a complete SEI within thirty (30) days of his or her receipt of that notice was subject to a fine of $250. G.S. 138A-25(b). You were also informed that your failure to file a complete SEI within sixty (60) days of receipt of that notice was a violation of the Act and grounds for disciplinary action, including your removal from your public position. G.S. 138A-25(c) and G.S. 138A-45(b).

On May 31, 2007, you were sent a certified letter informing you that the State Ethics Commission ("the Commission") would consider the imposition of a $250 fine against you at its August 10, 2007, meeting. That letter also advised you that your failure to submit your SEI could be grounds for disciplinary action, including removal. You were invited to attend the Commission's meeting and provide written information for the Commission's consideration. That letter was accepted and signed for on June 5, 2007.

You did not respond to the May 31, 2007, letter or appear at the Commission's August 10, 2007, meeting.

This letter is to notify you that on August 10, 2007, the Commission fined you $250 for your failure to file your SEI. This fine was assessed under the authority granted to the Commission by G.S. 138A-25(b). In addition, pursuant to the authority granted to the Commission by G.S. 138A-45(b), you were removed from your position on the Elizabeth City State University Board of Trustees effective August 10, 2007, because of your willful failure to file your SEI.

In accordance with G.S. 150B-23, this letter is your notice of the Commission's final agency action. You have the right to appeal the Commission's assessment of the fine and your removal from the Board of Trustees by filing a petition with the Office of Administrative Hearings within sixty (60) days of receipt of this letter or you will lose your right to contest those actions. You may mail your petition to:

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding this letter.
