Plan for a Revised Long Range Plan

To return to traditional schedule (Revised Long-Range Plan Approved in January of the year that UNC would propose the next biennium budget) would mean approval of the next Long-Range Plan would be slated for January 2010, since the Board would normally approve the budget request for the next biennium in November 2010 (for the 2011-13 biennium). On the other hand, the revised Long-Range Plan could be approved in the fall of 2009 as major pieces of the UNC Tomorrow review are concluded.
