Prospective Teacher Scholarship Loan	This competitive, merit-based scholarship-loan program is available to students who have chosen to enter the education profession. The annual award is $4,000 per year for juniors and seniors enrolled full-time at a four-year college or university. This program also awards $2,500 per year for freshmen and sophomores, and community college students planning to transfer into a teacher education program at a four-year institution. The recipient agrees to work full-time as a teacher in North Carolina's public schools one year for every year of funding received or repay the loan at a rate of 10% interest. Repayment in the form of teaching must be completed within seven years of graduation.	Administered by the NC State Education Assistance Authority Phone: 800-700-1775 E-Mail: information@ncseaa.edu Website: cfnc.org/PTSL
Teacher Assistant Scholarship Fund	The Teacher Assistant Scholarship Fund provides funding to full-time teacher assistants pursuing initial licensure through a baccalaureate program at a North Carolina college or university with an approved teacher education program or enrolled in a North Carolina community college transfer program leading to teacher licensure at a qualifying four-year campus. Students already holding bachelor's degrees seeking initial licensure are eligible to apply. Recipients enrolled at two-year institutions receive $600 per term up to a maximum, of $1,800 annually, and recipients at four-year institutions receive $1,200 per term up to a maximum of $3,600 annually. Physical Education-Coaching Scholarship Loan	This program was established by the 2005 NC General Assembly to provide scholarship-loans to students who are pursuing college degrees to become public school teachers and coaches or assistant coaches in the public schools of North Carolina. Recipients will enroll in a curriculum that advances skills in physical education and coaching and that instills a strong motivation not only to remain in the coaching professions but to provide leadership in the schools where they coach. Annual awards of $4,000 per year are offered to eligible students enrolled full time. Recipients will be required to repay the scholarship-loan through qualifying service to the State of North Carolina upon graduation; those who do not fulfill the service obligation must repay the scholarship-loan in cash with 10% interest rate. One year of service as a full time teacher cancels one year of funding support received.	The program is administered by the North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority. Applications, deadlines, eligibility requirements, repayment requirements and additional details about this program are available online. Toll-free Number: 866-866-CFNC  Website: CFNC.org/PEC
North Carolina Teaching Fellows Program	The NC Teaching Fellows Program provides $6,500 a year for four years of full-time undergraduate study leading to a degree in teacher education at a college or university with a Teaching Fellows Program. A maximum of 500 scholarships are awarded each year to current high school seniors. At each of the selected institutions, unique enrichment programs have been designed specifically for Teaching Fellows. These programs include activities such as seminars, cultural events, faculty mentor programs, early field experiences, and study abroad programs. Emphasis is placed on leadership development skills and activities that will give Teaching Fellows a broad range of experiences beyond the required work. Recipients must be accepted for admission to one of the following postsecondary institutions in North Carolina: Appalachian State University, Campbell University, East Carolina University, Elizabeth City State University, Elon University, Lenior-Rhyne College, Meredith College, North Carolina A&amp;T State University, North Carolina Central University, North Carolina State University, Queens University, UNC Asheville, UNC Chapel Hill, UNC Charlotte, UNC Greensboro, UNC Pembroke, UNC Wilmington, and Western Carolina University. Applicants are screened by two committees, one from the applicant's local school district, and the other from the educational region in which the applicant lives. Candidates recommended by the selection committees are interviewed by the Regional Screening Committees. Financial need is not a selection criterion.	NC Teaching Fellows Program  3739 National Drive, Suite 100  Raleigh, NC 27612  Phone: 919-781-6833  Fax: 919-781-6527  E-Mail: tfellows@ncforum.org  Website: www.teachingfellows.org
