

Recommendation:

That the University of North Carolina at Charlotte be allowed to add a single additional peer to their list of peers—The University of Massachusetts at Lowell. This university was discussed as a potential peer by the GA staff and by Dennis Jones the consultant for selecting peers and was recognized as being an appropriate peer for UNCC. At that time UNCC did not select the University of Massachusetts at Lowell as a peer. General Administration, based on a request from UNCC, recommends that the University of Massachusetts be added to UNCC's list of peers.

This is the only modification to the peer lists for campuses that will be recommended by General Administration. However, before the next biennium there will be a review of all the peer lists for the campuses.
