Education

Harvard Business School, MBA, 1974
Colgate University, BA in Economics, Phi Beta Kappa, 1968

Experience

Senior Education Advisor, University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, School of Education, 2008 – 2011

Provide assistance on various strategic planning issues, and represent LEARN NC with external educational organizations.

Interim Director, NC Virtual Public School, 2007

Upon request by the State Board of Education, provided executive leadership to the State's Virtual Public School in its start up phase

Executive Director, LEARN NC, University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, School of Education. 1999 – 2006

- Responsible for the leadership and management of the state's primary internet-based (www.learnnc.org) educational resource network for teachers, which offers a wide variety of classroom and professional development resources, and online courses for both teachers and students. Also served as a principal investigator with the National Research Center for Rural Education Support in the area of e-learning.
- Major Accomplishments:
  - Implemented a strategic plan to integrate a variety of diverse digital educational resources into an easy-to-use tool for teachers using innovative technologies and complemented by training in new teaching methodologies.
  - Developed vital strategic partnerships with key K-20 educational entities, and offered them a convenient vehicle to access NC's classrooms and teachers.
  - Developed a program which delivers a variety of web-based courses for teachers and students: teacher certification courses for NC TEACH and UNC General Administration, CEU and high school courses for the Department of Public Instruction. LEARN NC is the primary provider of online high school courses in NC.
  - Positioned LEARN NC as the primary statewide K-12 outreach program for the University and the School of Education.
  - From 2000 to 2006, the website experienced a ten-fold increase in usage to about 20,000 visitors daily.
