

Authorization of Tuition for 2005-06

I. 2005-06 Tuition Rates

Board-Initiated Tuition Increases

The Board's tuition policy calls for the establishment of a special committee of representatives from all campuses to make a recommendation to the President regarding Board-initiated tuition increases. The recommendations of that special committee were reviewed with the Board at its November meeting and the decision was made not to approve a Board-initiated tuition increase for the 2005-06 academic year.

Previously Board-approved Tuition Increases in Professional Schools:

The following tuition increases for professional schools were approved by the Board of Governors during its March 2004 meeting. At that meeting, the Board approved tuition increases for professional schools for a multi-year period.

East Carolina University
1st year Medical Students	$700 for 2005-06, and $700 for 2006-07

UNC Charlotte
Masters of Business Administration	$2,500 for 2005-06

Campus-Initiated Tuition Increases

At the February 2005 Board of Governors meeting, the Board approved a motion presented by the Committee on Budget and Finance that tuition rates for resident undergraduate students remain at the 2004-05 level for 2005-06 academic year.

It is proposed that the following increases in nonresident undergraduate, graduate, and professional students be considered as requested by the campuses. The chancellors discussed the uses of the proposed receipts during their presentations to the Committee on Budget and Finance in February 2005. The chancellors discussed the need for funds to ensure competitiveness in faculty salaries, increase the pool of financial aid funding, expand student services, and continue to meet the Board's directives to reduce class size, increase section offerings, and hire more permanent and less part-time faculty.

Increases in Tuition for Professional Schools

It is proposed that the following tuition increases for professional schools be considered:

East Carolina University

Masters of Business Administration	$60 per credit hour for 2005-06
Masters of Science in Accounting	$60 per credit hour for 2005-06

The East Carolina University College of Business is seeking to charge additional tuition of $60 per student credit hour for students enrolled in classes in the Master of Business Administration (MBA) and the Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) programs. The additional tuition revenue supports the establishment of a Career Office, which will assist students with job searches and internship opportunities. In addition, the funding would provide increased scholarships, enhance marketing efforts, and support additional student activities.

UNC-Chapel Hill

Masters of Business Administration	Resident Students: Half the total nonresident rate for 2005-06, 2006-07, and 2007-08 Nonresident Students: $2,000 for 2005-06; $2,000 for 2006-07; $2,000 for 2007-08
Masters of Accounting	Resident Students: Half the total nonresident rate for 2005-06, 2006-07, and 2007-08 Nonresident Students: $2,000 for 2005-06 $2,000 for 2006-07; $2,000 for 2007-08

The Kenan-Flagler Business School requests a tuition increase in the Master of Business Administration and Masters of Accounting (MAC) programs for the academic years 2005-06 through 2007-08. The funds would be used to address disparities in faculty salaries and to increase the number of student fellowships. In addition, the funds would support curriculum development and improved program infrastructure in the areas of Admissions, Career Services, and Student Services.

Law	Resident Students: $500 for 2005-06 (entering Fall 2005) Nonresident Students: $1,000 for 2005-06 (entering Fall 2005)

The School of Law seeks additional funding to provide additional need-based financial aid and decrease the student-faculty ratio by hiring additional faculty.

Medicine (M.D. Candidate)	Resident Students: $1,500 for 2005-06 Nonresident Students: $0 for 2005-06
---------------------------	---

The School of Medicine proposes a school-based increase to increase financial aid and begin an “academy of teaching scholars” to ensure adequate leadership in curricular reform and delivery of the M.D. degree as well as to provide increased advising and tutoring/mentoring for Clinical Education students. In addition, the increased funding would support the acquisition of software required to facilitate the conversion of faculty curricular materials to a web-based, on-line format.

UNC-Chapel Hill (continued)

Master of Public Health	Entering Fall 2005 - $500 for 2005-06; $500 for 2006-07; $500 for 2007-08

The additional revenues will support student financial aid, replace instructional technology, and address disparities in faculty salaries.

UNC Greensboro

Masters of Business Administration	$40 per credit hour for 2005-06
Masters of Science in Info. Technology	$20 per credit hour for 2005-06

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Master of Science in Information Technology (MSITM) programs propose an increase to support the career services, marketing and program operations staff. The additional funding will enhance the graduate education experience from recruitment to placement.

The tuition rates that follow reflect the campus-initiated tuition proposals submitted by all institutions for 2005-06.

II. Special Tuition Rates for Nonresident Students, 2005-06

Each year, the Board of Governors establishes special tuition rates for two groups of nonresident students in accordance with a Board Resolution approved July 29, 1983. The two groups of students identified in the Resolution are as follows:

- Group 1. Undergraduate students deemed by the institution to have special talents and qualifications and who are thereby awarded by the institution a scholarship or fellowship at a rate of at least $250 per academic year. The North Carolina School of the Arts may identify categories within this group in accordance with established institutional practice.
- Group 2. Graduate students who are awarded by the institution a graduate teaching or research assistantship and who are paid a stipend at a rate of at least $2,000 per academic year.

III. Tuition for Students Enrolled in Degree-Credit Distance Education Courses

It is proposed that, effective with the fall semester 2005, resident students and nonresident students taking courses within North Carolina that are enrolled in distance education courses be charged the regular-term tuition rates established in Section I. It is further proposed that tuition rates for these students be implemented on a per-credit-hour basis and that the charge per credit hour be calculated as follows:

- For undergraduate courses, the rate per student credit hour would be the annual rate divided by 29.6 hours.
- For graduate courses, the rate per student credit hour would be the annual rate divided by 20.4 hours.

It is further proposed that the Board delegate to the President the authority to set tuition rates for nonresident students taking courses outside North Carolina. These are students who primarily take courses via the Internet.
