

Waiving Tuition for High School Students at the North Carolina School of the Arts

At the September meeting of the Board of Governors, the Board approved a resolution waiving tuition and fees for the fall semester for college students that had previously been enrolled in and had already paid tuition at colleges and universities that had been forced to close because of Hurricane Katrina and were subsequently accepted to a UNC campus. The resolution did not include the waiver of tuition and fees for high school students in the same circumstance that had applied for admission to the North Carolina School of the Arts. NCSA has accepted five students, all previously enrolled at the New Orleans Center for Creative Arts.

It is recommended that tuition and fees be waived for high school students accepted at the North Carolina School of the Arts for the fall semester 2005 that had previously enrolled in arts institutions that are now closed as a result of Hurricane Katrina.
