

From The Code:

301 E. The Committee on University Governance shall consist of seven voting members. It shall keep under continuous review the application and interpretation of The Code of the University of North Carolina and all delegations of authority under that code, and it shall make such recommendations to the Board of Governors for the amending of The Code or delegations of authority as may seem appropriate for the effective and efficient operation of the University of North Carolina and its constituent institutions. The committee shall make nominations to the Board of Governors for elections to the boards of trustees of the constituent institutions. The committee shall receive all requests from students of the constituent institutions for appellate review by the Board of Governors pursuant to Section 502 D(3) of this Code and from non-faculty employees of the University who are exempt from the State Personnel Act pursuant to Section 609 C of this Code.

SECTION 302. GENERAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING STANDING COMMITTEES.

302 A. Appointment of Members.

The chair of the Board of Governors shall appoint voting members of the board to standing committees. The term of each voting member of a standing committee shall normally be two years, commencing upon the effective date of the appointment to the committee and extending until a successor is appointed. The voting membership of each committee shall be divided into two classes, with the terms of approximately one-half of the members expiring each year. To achieve balance and efficiencies in the committee system, the chair may appoint members to one-year terms or reassign members who have served one year of a two-year term. The chair shall appoint members of standing committees to take effect at the first meeting of the committee after July 1. If a voting member has served on a standing committee for four consecutive years, the member shall be, for a period of one year, ineligible for reappointment to the same standing committee. If a vacancy occurs on a standing committee during a term, the chair of the board may appoint a voting member of the board to fill the remainder of the unexpired term.

302 B. Officers of Standing Committees.

A chair, vice chair, and secretary of each standing committee shall be elected by the committee membership each year at the first meeting after July 1. No person may serve more than two successive terms as chair of the same standing committee.
