

This will be a brief review of the three teacher-education related reports on the Consent Agenda and a brief discussion of some changes and new directions for University-School Programs and the Center for School Leadership Development.