Committee on Public Affairs

December 4, 2014

2. Elected Officials PanelJames Holmes

Situation: The Committee will have a discussion with state elected officials about education policy and priorities for the upcoming legislative session.

Background: This presentation is a new initiative by the committee to more regularly interact with elected officials at the state and federal level on issues of importance to the University. This month, we are pleased to host the House and Senate Minority Leaders. Sen. Dan Blue (D-Wake) and Rep. Larry Hall (D-Durham) will be joining the committee to discuss their priorities for the upcoming legislative long session.

Assessment: N/A
