

Agenda Item 3a: Discussion of Vacancies on Councils and Boards of Trustees

Situation: UNC Press will have 3 vacancies on its Board of Governors for five-year terms beginning July 1, 2015. There also is an additional vacancy carried over from last year (July 1, 2014, remaining four years of term).

Background: The Press has 15 elected members who serve 5 year terms and may be reelected for successive terms with a service limit of 3 full terms. Eleven of the current members actively hold an academic position from universities including UNC-CH, UNC Greensboro, NCSU, and NCCU.

According to its by-laws, the Press BOG creates a nominating committee and submits a slate to the Chancellor of UNC-CH who transmits it to the UNC system president, who presents it to the UNC Board of Governors.

Assessment: President Ross has submitted his recommendations. This slate also has the support of Tommy Harrelson, who is the Committee on University Governance liaison to UNC Press

Action: This item requires a vote.

Dear President Ross:

On March 25, 2015 the UNC Press's Board of Governors approved the slate of individuals proposed by the Nominating Committee for appointment to the Board. The Committee this year was chaired by Professor Fitzhugh Brundage of UNC-Chapel Hill and includes Professor Irene Owens (NCCU) and Professor Inger Brody (UNC-CH).

The Nominating Committee recommends, and the UNC Press Board of Governors unanimously approved the following new nominees:

- Dr. Lars Schoultz, William Rand Kenan Jr. Professor of Political Science, UNC Chapel Hill (appointment to be effective July 1, 2015; term expires June 30, 2019). Dr. Schoultz is filling a seat that is currently vacant.
- Dr. Carlton Wilson, Dean and Associate Professor, College of Arts & Sciences, North Carolina Central University (appointment to be effective July 1, 2015; term expires June 30, 2020). Dr. Wilson would succeed Dr. John P. Evans, who is not eligible for reappointment.

The Nominating Committee also recommended and the UNC Press Board of Governors unanimously approved the following reappointments to the Board:

- Mr. John O'Hara, Managing Director and Senior Advisor, Rockefeller Financial (appointment to be effective July 1, 2015; term expires June 30, 2020).
- Dr. Kathleen DuVal, Associate Professor of History, UNC-Chapel Hill (appointment to be effective July 1, 2015; term expires June 30, 2020).

I concur with these recommendations and in accordance with procedures, submit these recommendations to you and the Board of Governors for final action. Thank you, and please do not hesitate to contact John Sherer (Director of UNC Press), Jack Evans, or myself with any questions or concerns.

Regards,

Carol L. Folt

Experience

2011-present Rockefeller & Company, New York, NY
Managing Director and Senior Advisor

Hired by senior management to provide both internal advice to the Firm and external advice to strategic partners and clients. (www.rockco.com) Currently, helping to spearhead and develop the strategic marketing outreach of Rockefeller Asset Management, the institutional asset management arm of the Firm currently managing approximately $7 billion across a platform of long-only equity products and about $1 billion in fixed income strategies. Developing new long only product offerings and working directly with investment consultants, plan sponsors, endowments and foundations in an effort to achieve greater institutional visibility and obtain new asset management mandates globally.

2002-2010 Franklin Street Partners, Chapel Hill, NC
Chief Operating Officer

Hired to run Franklin Street Partners, a 43-person, North Carolina independent investment management firm and family office complex. (www.franklin-street.com). Tripled assets under management and doubled revenues. Completely transformed the investment platform, in essence, bringing "Wall Street to Franklin Street." In addition to managing the business on a daily basis and helping to develop and maintain client and family office relationships, created an outsourced investment management platform consisting of a $600mm Fund of Hedge Funds and a $400mm traditional Manager of Managers product resulting in over $40 million in additional revenue. In 2002, instrumental in the design and implementation of the Retirement System of North Carolina's hedge fund program. Completely revamped the Firm's asset allocation process stressing allocation of risk vs. allocation of capital. Served as Chairman of the Management Committee, Co-Chairman of the Asset Allocation Committee and a member of the Board of Directors.

1997-2001

Goldman Sachs & Company, New York, NY & Princeton, NJ
Managing Director
Investment Management Division

Senior member of the Hedge Fund Strategies' Group within Goldman Sachs Asset Management. Developed and coordinated Goldman Sachs' hedge fund of funds product management effort. From 1997 through 2001 successfully launched six funds of funds products including Goldman Sachs Performance Partners, Goldman Sachs Strategic Technology Partners, Goldman Sachs Strategic Japan Partners, Goldman Sachs Strategic Europe Partners, Goldman Sachs Global Equity Long/Short Partners, and Goldman Sachs Global Discovery Partners. In addition, designed and implemented a number of institutional customized separate hedge fund accounts as well as Goldman Sachs' Hedge Fund University that helped educate institutional investors as to the benefits of including hedge funds in an asset allocation strategy. During this period, Goldman Sachs managed to raise over $4 billion in assets and became a dominant factor in the hedge fund industry. In addition, worked closely with a small group within Goldman Sachs advising very large family offices in excess of $1 billion.

1990-1997

Commodities Corporation, Princeton, NJ
Managing Director

Joined Commodities Corporation, a Goldman Sachs client, in 1990 to coordinate their hedge fund product management effort. Formed a 10-person global marketing and client service team that raised and served over $2 billion in assets. In 1990, designed and implemented the marketing effort behind "The Directors Fund," one of the early fund of hedge funds. Early investors included M.I.T., Wellesley College, Haverford College, and The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. In 1996, co-developed one of the first portable alpha programs along with Jeremy Grantham in a joint venture between Commodities Corporation and GMO. In addition, served on the firm's Management Policy Committee, overseeing a $35 million annual budget and managing the entire 180-person Commodities Corporation team. Commodities Corporation was formed in 1969 by Helmut Weymar and Professor Paul Samuelson and is regarded as one of the pioneers in alternative investments. Commodities Corporation was acquired by Goldman Sachs in 1997 and subsequently became the Hedge Fund Strategies Group within the Asset Management Division.

1979-1990

Goldman Sachs & Company, Philadelphia, PA
Vice President
Equities Division

Member of the Private Wealth Management Group. Designed and implemented asset allocation strategies for very wealthy families and selected institutions throughout the United States, but primarily Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Washington, DC. In 1980, became the first group within Goldman Sachs to use the personal computer to design and track client portfolios. In 1990, our three-person team was providing consultative investment advice on several billion dollars in private assets.

Education

1979 University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC
