Accelerating Innovation

• The UNC System needs to adapt to the needs of adult learners and a changing labor market.

• To do this we need new models and services not currently available at scale in the system. Many universities have partnered with Online Program Managers (OPM’s), but the terms are often expensive.

• A new entrepreneurial ed-tech startup can provide these services to accelerate existing universities’ ability to serve working adults.

• The start-up would operate as a nonprofit, affiliated entity, where ‘clients’ are system universities.

• Universities that choose to partner would work with the new organization to develop programs in collaboration with their faculty. Universities will award the degrees.

THE TRUSTEE ROLE IN KEY FINANCIAL DECISIONS

Board of Trustees Workshop
November 16, 2021

Jennifer Haygood
Senior VP for Finance and Administration
One consolidated University focused on:

Access
Affordability
Student Success
Presidential Goals

• Affordability: Reduce student debt by keeping cost of attendance affordable and reducing time to degree.

• Student success: Increase on-time graduation rates for first-time and transfer students.

• Cost-per-degree: Increase the productivity of state investments.
The Role of the Board of Trustees

- Tuition and Fees
- Housing and Dining Rates
- Budgeting
- Capital, Property, and Debt

What is your responsibility as a trustee?
How can you help move the needle on System goals?
What questions should you be asking?
Agree or Disagree: As a trustee, I play a role in ensuring college is affordable.

TUITION AND FEES
Constitutional Mandate

“The General Assembly shall provide that the benefits of the University of North Carolina and other public institutions of higher education, as far as practicable, be extended to the people of the State free of expense.”

– NC Constitution – Article IX, Section 9
Affordability Initiatives

Policy Actions by Board and Legislature to Address Affordability

- Bottom-Quartile Requirement for Resident Undergraduates
- Guaranteed (Fixed) Tuition Program
- No undergraduate resident tuition increases since 2017-18
- 3% Cap on Mandatory Student Fee Increases
- Implementation of NC Promise (ECSU, UNCP, WCU)
- Strategic Plan Affordability Goal: limits tuition increases to no more than the increase in median household income
Average of Published In-State Tuition & Fees (2020-21)
4-year public institutions
Tuition and Fee Process

- The System Office provides guidance and instructions to institutions for the tuition and fee process.
  - September

- Institutions hold tuition and fee committee meetings, which includes faculty, students, and staff, to discuss potential rate increases.
  - August – November

- Tuition and fee proposals are submitted to the board of trustees for approval.
  - October – December

- A tuition and fee committee at the System Office reviews the proposals.
  - December – February

- The Board of Governors considers tuition and fee proposals for approval.
  - January – March
Key Questions and Considerations

- Why is the increase needed?
  - Intended use of additional receipts
  - Changes in various price and income indices (e.g., NC Median Household Income, Consumer Price Index, etc.)

- Are other revenue sources available?
  - Availability of State General Fund revenue
  - Institutional efforts to manage costs and prioritize use of funds

- What is the potential impact on student access, particularly in context of other proposed increases?
  - Availability of financial aid and the amount of unmet need
  - Student indebtedness levels
Tuition and fees are just one piece of the cost

Tuition and fees make up ~1/3 of the cost of attendance in the UNC System.

Source: IPEDS. Includes in-state, on-campus, full-time, first-time undergraduate students. Public 4-year institutions with incomplete data excluded from calculations.
Trends in Average Tuition & Fees and Room & Board

Room represents standard room-double occupancy and Board represents a full meal plan.
Source: System Office Finance and Administration
Trustee Role in Setting Housing and Dining Rates

- Historically, the UNC Policy Manual was silent on who approved rates, resulting in inconsistent approval practices.

- Pricing, Flexibility, and Affordability Task Force recommendation: boards of trustees must approve student housing and meal plan rates.

- Expect Board of Governors to formally adopt this policy change in January 2022.

Key Questions and Considerations

- Are rates adequate to cover costs and reserves?
  - Housing and dining are self-supporting auxiliary enterprises (no state support)

- Are reserve levels appropriate?
  - Outstanding debt on facilities and associated debt covenants
  - Adequacy of reserves to cover unexpected “shocks”
  - Future capital improvements
  - Are revenues being used to support unrelated purposes?

- When setting rates, are cost drivers and other factors balanced against student affordability considerations?

More State Support ➔ More Flexibility
Why Develop an All-Funds Budget?

- Provide comprehensive expenditure plan that includes both General Fund and Trust Funds
- Better align resources with strategic priorities
- Promote stewardship and financial sustainability
- Better understand the impact of discrete decisions on the broader financial picture
- Improve transparency and campus engagement
- Strengthen the fiduciary responsibility of the boards of trustees
Statutory Duty

G.S. 116-1(b) – “...In the fulfillment of this mission, the University shall seek an efficient use of available resources to ensure the highest quality in its service to the citizens of the State.”
Trustee Role in Budgeting

- Effective for FY23 and annually thereafter, the board of trustees shall approve a comprehensive, “all-funds” budget for the institution.

- FY23 “all-funds” budget submissions are due to System Office by May 4, 2022.

- Institutional budgets will be compiled and presented to the Board of Governors at its May meeting.
  - Budget for institution as a whole and major organizational units
  - Budget narrative
Key Questions and Considerations

- Are resources being allocated strategically?
  - Can funds be repurposed to better align with priorities?
  - How does the budget support progress towards System-wide and institutional goals?

- Are there opportunities to improve efficiency?
  - Are there any duplicative, underperforming, or low priority programs that should be eliminated?
  - Can programs, offices, and services be streamlined or consolidated?
  - Can layers of management and administration be reduced?

- Does the budget promote the institution’s financial sustainability?
  - Is the budget structurally sound and include adequate reserves?
  - Are enterprise risks considered when developing the budget?

The UNC System has almost 89.4 million gross square feet of capital assets.
This includes almost 3,000 buildings.
Current replacement value exceeds $27 billion.
UNC Capital Improvement Priorities

- The UNC System is one of the largest property managers in the state
  - Almost 45 million GSF in appropriated buildings

- Caring for our existing assets is crucial
  - The deferred maintenance/building deficiencies backlog is estimated at $3.42 billion
  - Repair and renovation funding has averaged only $32 million/year

- UNC System priorities focus for capital projects
  - Maintaining existing buildings in good condition
  - Repairing and renovating existing buildings to extend life over constructing new buildings, where practicable
  - Maximizing utilization of existing space over adding new space
BOT Responsibilities

- Approval of Real Property Transactions
  - Real property acquisitions and dispositions (including demolitions and easements), leases, and ground leases
  - Millennial campus designations
  - Master plan, typically updated on five-year cycle

- Approval of Capital Projects
  - Authorization of capital improvement projects including advanced planning, new capital projects, and increased authorizations
  - Selection of professional services firms including designers, construction managers at risk, and other related services
  - Energy performance savings contracts

- Approval of Capital Debt
  - Approval of self-liquidating projects and associated debt issuances including refinancing existing debt

BOTs are authorized to approve advance planning of capital improvement projects in any amount, where the advance planning effort is funded entirely with non-General Fund money.
Key Questions and Considerations

- How does the property acquisition, disposition, building demolition, or proposed construction support the campus master plan?

- Why is the capital project needed and how will it be funded? What is the impact if the project is not done? If new construction, what will happen to the existing facility?

- For non-appropriated projects, what funds are available long-term for building operations and maintenance, preventive maintenance, and repairs and renovations?

- For self-liquidating projects, how will debt payments be funded? Will the debt issuance require an increase in any fee?

• Provide opportunity for discussion
UNC Mission

The University of North Carolina is a public, multicampus university dedicated to the service of North Carolina and its people. It encompasses the 17 diverse constituent institutions and other educational, research, and public service organizations.

Each shares in the overall mission of the university. That mission is to discover, create, transmit, and apply knowledge to address the needs of individuals and society.
BOG Committee on Educational Planning, Policies, and Programs

301 C. The Committee on Educational Planning, Policies, and Programs shall receive the advice and recommendations of the president and make recommendations to the Board in all areas pertaining to the development of a coordinated system of higher education in North Carolina, including:

(a) the definition of mission and assignment of functions of each constituent institution;
(b) the review of requests for the initiation of new degree programs and recommendations for the termination of existing programs;
(c) the provision of supportive services, facilities, and other resources for the instructional, research, and public-service programs of the constituent institutions;
(d) the review of policies affecting educational programs and academic affairs;
(e) matters concerning the involvement of students in the University and in university life;
(f) review of matters concerning health affairs in the University; and
(g) review of matters concerning the utilization of information technology in furtherance of the University’s mission.
BOG Committee on Educational Planning, Policies, and Programs

• Each board of trustees shall promote the sound development of the institution within the functions prescribed for it, helping it to serve the State in a way that will complement the activities of the other institutions and aiding it to perform at a high level of excellence in every area of endeavor.

• Each board shall serve as advisor to the Board of Governors on matters pertaining to the institution and shall also serve as advisor to the chancellor concerning the management and development of the institution.
Institutions use a variety of committee structures to oversee issues related to academic and student affairs.
ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
Academic Affairs

• Issues Facing Academic Affairs
  o Managing multiple instructional formats
  o Changing student demographics
  o Faculty and staff burnout
  o Provost turnover and transitions
  o Leading change with limited resources
  o Increasing reliance on faculty off tenure-track
Academic Affairs

• Each BOT should help support the chancellor and institution in fulfilling the mission of the institution, as part of the larger UNC System

• Be aware of the academic program portfolio, how it supports the institution’s mission, and what opportunities and challenges the institution faces

• Each BOT should be aware of institutional (SACSCOC) accreditation status and timelines, along with key programmatic or disciplinary accreditation issues
Academic Programs

• Process of developing new academic degree programs is long and complex (can take 3 – 5 years from idea to inception)

• Faculty have primary responsibility for oversight of academic programs, BOG has final approval authority

• Provost, chancellor, and BOTs should ensure that program proposals are connected to your institution’s mission and strategic plan

• Recent revisions to UNC System approval process place additional focus on demonstrating student demand, post-graduation outcomes, and financial sustainability
Academic Freedom, Tenure, and Faculty

• Chapter VI of The Code outlines requirements and standards for Academic Freedom and Tenure in the UNC System

• Each BOT is charged with the oversight of policies and regulations governing appointment, reappointment, promotion, and tenure

• BOG has delegated to the BOTs of 13 institutions the authority to award permanent tenure

• BOTs have also been active in helping institutions think through policies to support faculty members not on the tenure-track
STUDENT AFFAIRS
Student Affairs – Student Services

Each board of trustees, upon recommendation of the chancellor, shall determine the type, level, and extent of student services (such as health care, athletic programs, and counseling) to be maintained for the benefit of students at the institution, subject to general provisions concerning types and levels of student services as may be prescribed by the Board of Governors (The Code, Appendix 1, Section XI)

Delegations of Authority for Personnel Actions

Pursuant to Sections 200.6 and 600.3.4 of the UNC Policy Manual, the Board of Governors has delegated authority for the UNC System Human Resources program to the president, who in turn may additionally delegate parts of that authority to the boards of trustees and chancellors.

- Board of Governors
- Committee on University Personnel
- President
- SVP for Human Resources
- Board of Trustees
- Chancellor
Role of the Board of Trustees in Personnel Matters

• To decide which personnel authorities granted by the president and Board of Governors to the board of trustees that they decide to retain and those they opt to further delegate to the chancellor and his/her senior campus officers were permitted by UNC policy.

• To review and act on salary, position, tenure, and senior officer appointment personnel actions requiring the approval of the board of trustees which are not otherwise delegated.

• To receive periodic updates from the chancellor on salary and personnel matters when the chancellor is exercising personnel authority delegated by the board of trustees.
Role of the Board of Trustees in Personnel Matters

- To receive periodic informational reports and updates from the chancellor and other campus senior officers on campus personnel matters as well as the status of equal opportunity, diversity, and inclusion programs
- To hear periodic reports and input from the leaders of the campus faculty and staff senates/forums
- Provide input to the president on chancellor performance through the board of trustee's chair and formal assessments every 2 & 4 years administered by the System Office
- To have representatives participate in chancellor search committees and recommend prospective finalists to the president at the conclusion of chancellor searches

Delegated Authority Relating to EHRA Salary Actions

Board of Trustees (BOT)
- Not to exceed 20 percent and $15,000 of the June 30 salary (cumulatively fiscal year to-date)
- Expanded authority for temporary actions (25% and $25,000, not to exceed 12 months)
- The BOT must be consulted on all new SAAO-I positions and appointments; on all new or modified SAAO-II salary ranges (if established at the campus level); and the conferral of tenure and distinguished professorships.

System Office
- Not to exceed 25% and $25,000 of the June 30 salary (cumulatively fiscal year to-date)
- Expanded authority for retentions (30% and $25,000) and temporary actions (30% and $25,000 and 13 months)

Board of Governors/Committee on University Personnel (CUP)
- Anything that exceeds the salary increase thresholds noted above
- CUP does not approve salary increases related to externally posted competitive events; the President retains authority for those
- All personnel actions for chancellors including salary actions must receive the approval of the full Board of Governors on recommendation of the president
Key Factors for Deciding on Salary Actions

- The nature of the hiring process. Was this a competitive process (posted position) or a waiver of recruitment? If a waiver, how was this justified and is that compatible with the campus's equal opportunity policies/practices?

- Equity with existing peers. Is a proposed salary above that of campus peer positions and if so, is this justified based on education, experience, scope of job, or other factors?

- Equity with external peers. For more highly compensated senior officers, how does the proposed salary compare with similar roles at UNC System peer schools?

- The salary range. Where does the proposed salary fall within the assigned salary range for the position? Does it fall within the market range (which is generally the 50th to the 75th percentiles of the range)? If below or above the market range, why?

- Source of funds. Is the position supported by state funds, contracts and grants or other funding sources? Does the campus have adequate budget in place to support the proposed salary and benefits on a recurring basis?
Key Factors for Deciding on Senior Officer Appointments

• The nature of the hiring process. Was this a competitive process (posted position) or a waiver of recruitment? If a waiver, was this justified and is that compatible with the campus's equal opportunity policies/practices? If a competitive search, how was the search processed conducted and who was involved?

• Internal candidates. Where there are any internal candidates for the position? What efforts were made to develop internal candidates for this role, now and in the future (e.g., succession planning)?

• Qualifications of candidate. What is the principal basis for this candidate's selection compared to other candidates? What are their perceived strengths that best equip them for this position? How where the qualifications verified/vetted?

• Reference Checking. What were the results of reference checks and what other candidate due diligence was accomplished to inform the proposed hire?

The Board of Governors maintains The Code and the UNC Policy Manual. The Code incorporates the requirements of the North Carolina constitution and General Statutes, as well as Board of Governors bylaws and other high-level policies. The UNC Policy Manual provides more specific direction and policies on university matters.

Section 300.1.4 of the UNC Policy Manual, Policy on Campus State Relations Officers
Policy on Campus State Relations Officers

As set forth in The Code, the president is the University’s representative to all governmental bodies. The president is presumed by the Governor and members of the General Assembly to direct all activities on behalf of all parts of the University and to be answerable for them. These are the most important principles in ensuring effective communication and advocacy of the interests of the University and its constituent campuses.

Under the direction of the president, the vice president for public affairs and his or her staff have primary responsibility for representation of the University before governmental bodies. They may be assisted in this effort by campus officers who shall act at the request and under the direction of the vice president and his or her staff.

The chancellors may designate, in consultation with the president and the vice president for public affairs, a campus officer to carry out the functions of state relations officer. The campus state relations function shall constitute no more than 25 percent of each designee’s time, and no campus title shall refer to government or state relations. The duties and responsibilities of the campus designee with regard to state relations shall be to assist the president and his or her designees with building support for the University’s budget request and legislative priorities. It is the expectation of the Board that the state relations function shall be a minor part of each such designee’s responsibilities.

In each instance, the individual so designated shall, in addition to reporting to his or her campus supervisor report to the vice president for public affairs solely with regard to any state relations responsibilities. The vice president shall provide to the campus supervisor an annual performance evaluation of the campus officer with state relations responsibilities.

The president shall take necessary and appropriate actions to implement this policy and shall report on such implementation to the Committee on University Personnel. The president shall also report to the committee periodically on the efficacy of the structure established pursuant to this policy, and shall make recommendations regarding the continuance and/or modification of the policy.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Chancellors
    Chiefs of Staff
    Chief Academic Officers
    Chief Financial Officers

FROM: Jennifer Haygood

SUBJECT: 2021-23 Capital Budget Priorities and 2021-27 Six-Year Capital Plan Submissions

As a follow-up to President Hans’ September 24th memo regarding the 2021 legislative agenda, this budget memorandum provides additional instructions for the preparation of the 2021-23 capital budget priorities and the 2021-27 Six-Year Capital Improvement Plans, as required by statute.

Given the uncertain revenue forecast, we plan to take a two-step approach for developing the 2021-23 capital budget priorities. Campuses will first develop 2021-27 Six-Year Capital Improvement Plans to identify current and anticipated capital requests, consistent with the guidance below. Prioritized plans are required for:

I. general fund capital improvement projects,
II. non-general fund capital improvement projects, and
III. general fund repairs and renovations.

Once the revenue picture becomes clearer and we receive further budget instructions from the Office of State Budget and Management (OSBM), the 2021-23 capital budget priorities will be developed based on these plans. Barring a significant infusion of state or federal funds for capital, the 2021-23 capital budget priorities for the UNC System will continue to focus on extending the use of existing buildings through rehabilitation and renovation and will not include new construction or expansion.

Cultivating a Culture of Philanthropy

Questions about Culture:

1. If leadership really begins at the top, what would a culture of philanthropy look and feel like for our board? How can we discuss the answers candidly and create a strategy for change?

2. What type of process should we initiate to examine and assess our institutional culture and to define changes we want to consider?

3. Do the actions and priorities demonstrated by our senior staff provide a model of collaborative and engaging styles that align well with the institution’s vision and mission?

4. Are we transparent, and do we effectively steward gifts and encourage genuine engagement among volunteers and donors?

5. What would a culture of philanthropy look and feel like for our staff, our volunteers, and our donors?
What Is The Board’s Role In Fundraising?

Governing boards have several responsibilities associated with fundraising. These responsibilities include:

- Ensuring that fundraising is based on specific institutional plans;
- Ensuring an adequate Advancement budget;
- Identifying and cultivating prospects;
- Soliciting gifts and thanking donors for those gifts;
- Ensuring proper stewardship of gifts;
- Evaluating the fundraising leadership of the chief executive; and
- Demonstrating their commitment to the institution by making individual gifts.
What Is The Board’s Role In Fundraising?

In order to contribute to an environment that encourages philanthropy, Trustees have a responsibility to help shape the institution’s overall fundraising direction and activities. They should:

- Request appropriate planning.
- Confirm the importance of fundraising as part of the institution’s financial model.
- Ensure an adequate budget.
What Is The Board’s Role In Fundraising?

Sounding Board for Fundraising Strategy

A key role of a trustee member is to help ensure that the university’s fundraising is based on a solid foundation. Trustees must understand the fundraising plans and strategies presented to them as well as offer constructive feedback from their perspective as volunteer leaders of the organization. Questions to consider include the following:

- Are fundraising plans based on solid research and data? What missed opportunities could be captured? What obstacles stand in the way of success?
- Will the suggested approach appeal to the university’s key donors?
- If a campaign is being considered, has a test of feasibility been conducted?
- Is the university prepared to implement its fundraising plans and committed to achieving greater success?

What Is The Board’s Role In Fundraising?

Characteristics of Effective Board-University Partnerships

At their best, board-university relationships are marked by trust, candor, and collaboration. This special collaborative relationship allows the university to focus on its core educational purpose and still have access to expanded capacity and flexibility through an affiliated foundation. It allows the foundation to support the university by concentrating on other functions, such as asset management, fundraising, and entrepreneurial ventures.
