

CHAPTER III-
SECTION 300.

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS
ESTABLISHMENT AND MEMBERSHIP OF COMMITTEES.

A. The Board of Governors may establish such standing committees as it may deem necessary. Standing committees shall be established and their duties prescribed by a vote of two-thirds of the voting membership of the Board of Governors then in office. Special committees may be created by the Board of Governors or the chair of the Board to perform specific functions not requiring the continuous existence of a committee.

B. Each voting member of the Board shall at all times serve on no more than one of the standing committees designated in subsections 301 B through E, below.

C. Special members of the Board may be assigned to such standing or special committees as the chair of the Board of Governors may from time to time see fit.

D. The chair of the Board may, upon request of a standing committee chair, appoint any voting member to serve temporarily as a voting member of a subcommittee of a standing committee when the chair of the Board deems the work of the subcommittee to require such an appointment.

E. The vice chair of the Board of Governors shall at all times be a voting member of a standing committee. The vice chair shall be assigned to a committee by the chair of the Board following consultation between the chair and the vice chair. The vice chair's membership on a standing committee shall be in addition to the prescribed regular membership of the committee.

F. The chair of the Board of Governors shall be a voting member of all standing and special committees, but the chair's membership shall not be counted in determining a quorum.

SECTION 301.

THE STANDING COMMITTEES' JURISDICTION.

301 A. The standing committees of the Board of Governors shall be: the Committee on Budget and Finance; the Committee on Educational Planning, Policies, and Programs; the Committee on University Personnel; the Committee on University Governance; the Committee on Military and Public Affairs; and the Committee on Audit, Risk Management, and Compliance. Each of the standing committees shall consist of a number of voting members to be determined by the chair of the Board, provided that each standing committee shall have a regular membership of no fewer than five-voting members, unless otherwise specified herein.

301 B. The Committee on Budget and Finance shall advise and consult with the president concerning budget policy and preparation. The committee shall consider the budget proposed by the president and, upon its approval, shall submit the budget to the Board of Governors for final action. The committee shall make recommendations to the Board for the allocation of funds appropriated to the Board. It shall also advise and assist the president, and submit recommendations to the Board, with respect to real property transactions, investments, endowments, and other fiscal and property matters in accordance with valuation limits established in Board policy and within the jurisdiction of the Board of Governors.

301 C. The Committee on Educational Planning, Policies, and Programs shall receive the advice and recommendations of the president and make recommendations to the Board in all areas pertaining to the development of a coordinated system of higher education in North Carolina, including: (a) the definition of mission and assignment of functions of each constituent institution; (b) the review of requests for the initiation of new degree programs and recommendations for the termination of existing programs; (c) the provision of supportive services, facilities, and other resources for the instructional, research, and public-service programs of the constituent institutions; (d) the review of policies affecting educational programs and academic affairs; (e) matters concerning the involvement of students in the University and in university life; (f) review of matters concerning health affairs in the University; and (g) review of matters concerning the utilization of information technology in furtherance of the University's mission. The committee shall also advise and assist the president and the Board in maintaining close liaison with the State Board of Education, the State Board of Community Colleges, and the private colleges and universities, including the review of all requests for state aid to the private institutions. It shall further recommend to the Board procedures and standards for the licensing of non-public educational institutions.

301 D. The Committee on University Personnel shall, upon recommendation of the president, review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the appointment and compensation of all vice chancellors, and senior academic and administrative officers. Notwithstanding the provision above, the committee shall not review or recommend the appointment and compensation of vice chancellors, and senior academic and administrative officers for those constituent institutions delegated the authority to appoint and set compensation for such employees so long as the boards of trustees act consistently with the policy and compensation ranges established by the Board of Governors. Further, the committee shall advise and assist the president in the review and evaluation of tenure policies and regulations which the president shall periodically conduct. It shall also review all appeals from employees of the University of North Carolina System Office who are exempt from the North Carolina Human Resources Act pursuant to Section 611 of The Code.

301 E. The Committee on University Governance shall keep under continuous review the application and interpretation of The Code of the University of North Carolina (The Code) and all delegations of authority under that code, and it shall make such recommendations to the Board of Governors for the amending of The Code or delegations of authority as may seem appropriate for the effective and efficient operation of the University of North Carolina and its constituent institutions. The committee shall make nominations to the Board of Governors for elections to the boards of trustees of the constituent institutions. The committee shall receive all requests from students of the constituent institutions for appellate review by the Board of Governors pursuant to Section 502 D(3) of The Code.

301 F. The Committee on Military and Public Affairs shall consist of no fewer than three and no more than five-voting members to be determined by the chair of the Board. A voting member serving on this committee shall also serve on one or more other standing committees. The Committee on Military and Public Affairs shall assist the president and the chair of the Board in maintaining a positive relationship with the governor, the North Carolina General Assembly, the United States Congress, the United States Department of Defense and North Carolina's military constituency, and other governmental entities which affect the ability of the University to carry out its mission. The committee will review all state and federal policy priorities of the University. The committee also will evaluate and recommend policies and practices
