

APPENDIX I

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS
Committee on University Governance
April 15, 2026

W. Kel Normann

W. Kel Normann (Kel Normann) has more than 40 years of experience in the financial services industry and is a principal for CAPTRUST Advisors. He and his team specialize in wealth management advisory services for high-net-worth families, small businesses, and nonprofit organizations. In addition to being Series 7, 8, 63, and 65 registered, Normann holds life, accident, and health insurance licenses, qualifying him to help clients with their wealth management and estate planning strategies. Before joining CAPTRUST in October 2023, Normann founded and was president and owner of The Normann Financial Group and grew the wealth practice to assets of $1.5 billion upon joining CAPTRUST. Prior to 2015, Normann spent 30 years with Wells Fargo Advisors and predecessor firms dating back to Interstate Securities, where he began his career.

Normann is a 1985 graduate of East Carolina University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing. In 2011, he was honored as recipient of the East Carolina University Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Award, one of the most prestigious offered by the university, and is a past member of the ECU Board of Trustees, where he served as secretary and chair of the Audit Committee. He also served 22 years on the East Carolina University Foundation Board and as the chair of the investment committee for 20 years while on the board. Along with his service to boards of higher education, Normann serves on the board of directors for the Lee County Education Foundation, where he was one of the founding members and is a past president. He was also one of the founding board members for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Lee County, where he served for 15 years and is a past president.
