Dear Gretchen:

This letter is a notification that the University of North Carolina at Charlotte wishes to change the name of the Belk College of Business Administration to the Belk College of Business.

The request is being made as the term "administration" is too limiting~ Colleges and schools of business no longer focus only on administration. In a practical sense, it is also too long, and we would be advantaged in references and advertising with a shorter name.

We ask that President Broad recommend approval to the Board of Governors. Sincerely yours,

J. H. Woodward Chancellor
