

APPENDIX O

North Carolina State University Request for Authorization to Consolidate Bachelor's Degrees in Foreign Languages and Literatures

To improve efficiency and productivity, North Carolina State University is requesting consolidation of five undergraduate degree programs in foreign Languages and Literatures.

North Carolina State University is requesting authorization to consolidate five of its Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree programs into one B.A. degree program. The following programs will be discontinued and will become concentrations within the Bachelor of Arts degree in Foreign Languages and Literatures (16.0101).

- | | |
|--|---------|
| - B.A. in French Language and Literature | 16.0901 |
| - B.A. in Spanish Language and Literature | 16.0905 |
| - B.A. in French Language and Literature, Teacher Education | 13.1325 |
| - B.A. in German Studies | 05.0125 |
| - B.A. in Spanish Language and Literature, Teacher Education | 13.1330 |

Students in the current program will experience no disruption in their program of study during the transition to these merged degree programs. Individuals currently in these degree programs will be allowed to complete their degrees under the current structure.