

Request for Authorization to Discontinue the Master of Science in Vocational Evaluation at East Carolina University

East Carolina University has requested that its MS in Vocational Evaluation (CIP 51.2310) be discontinued.

The MS in Vocational Evaluation has exhibited low enrollment for several years and no students are currently enrolled. The last student graduated from this program in December 2014. No faculty will be reassigned or discontinued as they contribute to other degree programs offered in the Department of Addictions and Rehabilitation Studies.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Board of Governors approve East Carolina University's request to discontinue the MS in Vocational Evaluation.

Request for Authorization to Discontinue the Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill has requested that its BS in Pharmaceutical Sciences (CIP 51.2099) be discontinued.

The six-year PharmD degree is the standard credential for entering the pharmacy profession. The BS in Pharmaceutical Sciences had previously been awarded to students admitted to the PharmD degree program before completing a baccalaureate degree and also as a means to provide parity during the time of partnership with Elizabeth City State University. Neither of these use cases exist going forward, as the School of Pharmacy will no longer admit students prior to completion of the baccalaureate degree starting Fall 2015.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Board of Governors approve University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's request to discontinue the BS in Pharmaceutical Sciences.

Request for Authorization to Discontinue the Master of Arts in Romance Languages and Literatures, French at University of North Carolina at Greensboro

University of North Carolina at Greensboro has requested that its MA in Romance Languages and Literatures, French (CIP 16.0999) be discontinued.

UNC Greensboro is pursuing programmatic efficiencies in the area of languages and literatures. French and Francophone Studies and Spanish will be offered as two concentrations in a renamed Languages, Literatures and Cultures degree program (currently Romance Languages and Literatures, Spanish).

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Board of Governors approve University of North Carolina at Greensboro's request to discontinue the MA in Romance Languages and Literatures, French.

Request for Authorization to Discontinue the Master of Arts in Romance Languages and Literatures, French Education at University of North Carolina at Greensboro

University of North Carolina at Greensboro has requested that its MA in Romance Languages and Literatures, French Education (CIP 16.0999) be discontinued.

UNC Greensboro is pursuing programmatic efficiencies in the area of languages and literatures. The curriculum of the MA in Romance Languages and Literatures, French Education, is available to students as a concentration through the Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Board of Governors approve University of North Carolina at Greensboro's request to discontinue the MA in Romance Languages and Literatures, French Education.

Request for Authorization to Discontinue the Master of Arts in Romance Languages and Literatures, Spanish Education at University of North Carolina at Greensboro

University of North Carolina at Greensboro has requested that its MA in Romance Languages and Literatures, Spanish Education (CIP 16.0999) be discontinued.

UNC Greensboro is pursuing programmatic efficiencies in the area of languages and literatures. The curriculum of the MA in Romance Languages and Literatures, Spanish Education, is available to students as a concentration through the Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Board of Governors approve University of North Carolina at Greensboro's request to discontinue the MA in Romance Languages and Literatures, Spanish Education.