Disposition of Property by Demolition – University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

The Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill has requested authorization to demolish the Odum Village Student Apartment Complex located in the town of Chapel Hill, Orange County, North Carolina.

The Odum Village Student Apartment Complex was constructed in the early 1960's. Improvements proposed to be demolished consist of 36 buildings that total 236 apartments. The buildings are beyond their useful life and cannot be used to house students as they lack proper fire suppression sprinkler systems. The apartments will not be allowed as residential units after the spring semester of 2016. The demolition is necessary in order to proceed with the University's future construction of a Power Generation and Chilled Water Plant on this site.

The demolition of property is estimated to cost $5,138,593, will be funded by energy services receipts, housing receipts, and F&A funds, and will be completed by September 2016.

It is recommended that the request of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill be approved and transmitted to the Council of State for final action.
