Overview

The University of North Carolina (UNC) System is a multi-campus university dedicated to serving the state and its people through world-class teaching, research and scholarship, and outreach and service. In 1971, the Higher Education Reorganization Act placed the 16 baccalaureate-granting institutions that comprise the University of North Carolina System under one governing board. The act emphasized basic objectives for the University: to foster the development of a well-planned and coordinated system of higher education, to improve the quality of education, to extend educational benefits beyond campus borders, and to encourage economic and effective use of the state's resources.

The following entities are included in this report:

UNC System Office (Sys Ofc)	UNC Charlotte (UNCC)
Appalachian State University (ASU)	UNC Greensboro (UNCG)
East Carolina University (ECU)	UNC Pembroke (UNCP)
Elizabeth City State University (ECSU)	UNC Wilmington (UNCW)
Fayetteville State University (FSU)	UNC School of the Arts (UNCSA)
North Carolina A&T State University (N.C. A&T)	Western Carolina University (WCU)
North Carolina Central University (NCCU)	Winston-Salem State University (WSSU)
North Carolina State University (NC State)	NC School of Science and Mathematics (NCSSM)
UNC Asheville (UNCA)	UNC Hospitals at Chapel Hill (UNCH)
UNC-Chapel Hill (UNC-CH)

In its efforts to move forward with strategic planning, the University recognized the importance of establishing an overall mission and defining the role each institution would play in fulfilling the mission. In 1992, the Board of Governors adopted a general mission statement, and after some modification, the official statement was given statutory status in 1995.

Mission Statement

The University of North Carolina System is a public, multi-campus university dedicated to the service of North Carolina and its people. It encompasses the 17 diverse constituent institutions and other educational, research, and public service organizations. Each shares in the overall mission of the University. That mission is to discover, create, transmit, and apply knowledge to address the needs of individuals and society. This mission is accomplished through instruction, which communicates the knowledge and values and imparts the skills necessary for individuals to lead responsible, productive, and personally satisfying lives; through research, scholarship, and creative activities, which advance knowledge and enhance the educational process; and through public service, which contributes to the solution of societal problems and enriches the quality of life in the state. In the fulfillment of this mission, the University shall seek an efficient use of available resources to ensure the highest quality in its service to the citizens of the state.

Classification

The Carnegie Classification has been used for the purpose of classifying the universities within this report as small, medium, and large. For the past four and a half decades, the Carnegie Classification has been the leading framework for recognizing and describing institutional diversity in U.S. higher education. Starting in 1970, the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education developed a classification of colleges and universities to support its program of research and policy analysis. More information on this classification is available at <http://carnegieclassifications.iu.edu>. Based on these classifications, the universities have been classified as follows:

Large	Medium	Small
Appalachian State University	Fayetteville State University	UNC School of the Arts
East Carolina University	North Carolina Central University	Elizabeth City State University
North Carolina A&T State University	UNC Asheville
North Carolina State University	UNC Pembroke
UNC-Chapel Hill	Western Carolina University
UNC Charlotte	Winston-Salem State University
UNC Greensboro
UNC Wilmington

The UNC System Office, North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics, and UNC Hospitals at Chapel Hill are not included in the above classifications as these are not considered institutions of higher education. These institutions do factor into the comprehensive data summaries on the following pages. However, these three institutions are not included when data is categorized as 'Large', 'Medium', or 'Small'.

Glossary¹

Instruction - A functional expense category that includes expenses of the colleges, schools, departments, and other instructional divisions of the institution and expenses for departmental research and public service that are not separately budgeted. Includes general academic instruction, occupational and vocational instruction, community education, preparatory and adult basic education, and regular, special, and extension sessions. Also includes expenses for both credit and non-credit activities. Excludes expenses for academic administration where the primary function is administration (e.g., academic deans).

Research - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities specifically organized to produce research outcomes and commissioned by an agency either external to the institution or separately budgeted by an organizational unit within the institution. The category includes institutes and research centers, and individual and project research. This function does not include nonresearch sponsored programs (e.g., training programs).

Public service - A functional expense category that includes expenses for activities established primarily to provide noninstructional services beneficial to individuals and groups external to the institution. Examples are conferences, institutes, general advisory service, reference bureaus, and similar services provided to particular sectors of the community. This function includes expenses for community services, cooperative extension services, and public broadcasting services.

Academic support - A functional expense category that includes expenses of activities and services that support the institution's primary missions of instruction, research, and public service. It includes the retention, preservation, and display of educational materials (for example, libraries, museums, and galleries); organized activities that provide support services to the academic functions of the institution (such as a demonstration school associated with a college of education or veterinary and dental clinics if their primary purpose is to support the instructional program); media such as audiovisual services; academic administration (including academic deans but not department chairpersons); and formally organized and separately budgeted academic personnel development and course and curriculum development expenses.

Student services - A functional expense category that includes expenses for admissions, registrar activities, and activities whose primary purpose is to contribute to students' emotional and physical well-being and to their intellectual, cultural, and social development outside the context of the formal instructional program. Examples include student activities, cultural events, student newspapers, intramural athletics, student organizations, supplemental instruction outside the normal administration, and student records. Intercollegiate athletics and student health services may also be included except when operated as self-supporting auxiliary enterprises.

Institutional support - A functional expense category that includes expenses for the day-to-day operational support of the institution. Includes expenses for general administrative services, central executive-level activities concerned with management and long-range planning, legal and fiscal operations, space management, employee personnel and records, logistical services such as purchasing and printing, and public relations and development.

Operation and maintenance of plant - A functional expense category that includes expenses for operations established to provide service and maintenance related to campus grounds and facilities used for educational and general purposes. Specific expenses include utilities, fire protection, property insurance, and similar items. This function does include amounts charged to auxiliary enterprises, hospitals, and independent operations.

Student financial aid - Outright grants-in-aid, trainee stipends, tuition and fee waivers, and prizes awarded to students by the institution, including Pell grants. Awards to undergraduate students are most commonly referred to as "scholarships" and those to graduate students as "fellowships." These awards do not require the performance of services while a student (such as teaching) or subsequently as a result of the scholarship or fellowship. The term does not include loans to students (subject to repayment), College Work-Study Program (CWS), or awards granted to a parent of a student because of the parent's faculty or staff status. Also not included are awards to students where the selection of the student recipient is not made by the institution.

Auxiliary enterprises - Expenses for essentially self-supporting operations of the institution that exist to furnish a service to students, faculty, or staff, and that charge a fee that is directly related to, although not necessarily equal to, the cost of the service. Examples are residence halls, food services, student health services, intercollegiate athletics (only if essentially self-supporting), college unions, college stores, faculty and staff parking, and faculty housing.

Depreciation - The allocation or distribution of the cost of capital assets, less any salvage value, to expenses over the estimated useful life of the asset in a systematic and rational manner. Depreciation for the year is the amount of the allocation or distribution for the year involved.

Independent operations - Expenses associated with operations that are independent of or unrelated to the primary missions of the institution (i.e., instruction, research, public service), although they may contribute indirectly to the enhancement of these programs. This category is generally limited to expenses of a major federally funded research and development center. Expenses of operations owned and managed as investments of the institution's endowment funds are excluded.

Hospital services - Expenses associated with a hospital operated by the postsecondary institution (but not as a component unit) and reported as a part of the institution. This classification includes nursing expenses, other professional services, general services, administrative services, and fiscal services.
