         Action Items

         A list of all persons, employees or not, who owe money to a campus should be sent to the Department of Revenue as soon as possible.
         The deadline was December 1.

         It is important that each Chancellor interpret to his faculty how any faculty salary increase provided by the General Assembly will be distributed.

         Initial capital improvement requests are due in this office by January 21. An on-campus review should begin now of change-budget issues which should be raised.

         As emphasized by Felix Joyner and R. D. McMillan, it is essential that estimated costs of capital improvements be projected with greater accuracy.

         Each Chancellor should send to Dr. Raymond Dawson a copy of current faculty handbooks or manuals.

         Any personnel actions requiring action by the Board of Governors at the January meeting should be in this office by December 31.

         If any questions arise concerning visits to campuses by persons involved in the HEW matter, call Richard Robinson.
